Single Equality Scheme

'St. Michael's CE (Cont) Infant School aims to provide a caring Christian Community where everyone is valued and nurtured within a safe environment. All our policies take account of and reflect the distinctive nature of our Church of England School.'

Introduction

At St. Michael's CE (Cont) Infant School, we have a single equality scheme, which enables us to develop the full potential of everyone regardless of race, academic ability, social circumstances, creed, disability or gender.

Our scheme enables us to meet our duties under:

- The Race Relations Act (1976)
- The Race Relations (Amendment) Act (2000)
- The Disability Discrimination Act (1995)
- The Disability Discrimination Act (2005)
- The Sex Discrimination Act (1975)
- The Equality Act (2006)

Our scheme supports our response to our duty to promote community cohesion under the Education and Inspections Act (2006) Our scheme is integral to our efforts to achieve the objectives of the Hampshire Children and Young People's Plan.

We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010 as both a provider of education and as an employer. We believe that all pupils and members of staff should have the opportunity to fulfil their potential whatever their background, identity and circumstances. We are committed to creating a community that recognises and celebrates difference within a culture of respect and co-operation. We appreciate that a culture which promotes equality will create a positive environment and a shared sense of belonging for all who work, learn and use the services of our school. We recognise that equality will only be achieved by the whole school community working together – our pupils, staff, governors and parents/carers. This document outlines the principles which will guide our approach to working with our school.

National and Legal Context

We recognise that we have duties under the Equality Act 2010 in relation to the school community to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations in relation to age (applicable only to staff), disability, ethnicity, gender (including issues of transgender, maternity and pregnancy), religion and belief, sexual orientation and marital status (applicable only to staff). We also recognise that we have a duty under the Education & Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion, i.e. developing good relations across different cultures and groups. We also appreciate that these duties reflect the international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Duties

Our duties are:

Disability

- to promote equality of opportunity
- to eliminate unlawful discrimination
- to eliminate disability-related harassment
- to promote positive attitudes towards disabled people
- to encourage disabled people's participation in public life
- to take steps to take into account people's disabilities

Race

- to eliminate unlawful discrimination
- to promote equality of opportunity
- to promote good relations between people of different racial groups

Gender

- to eliminate unlawful sex discrimination
- to promote equality of opportunity and good relations between men and women, boys and girls

Community Cohesion

In addition to the above duties, we are committed to helping young people to learn to understand others, to value diversity, to promote shared values, to promote awareness of human rights, to develop the skills of participation and responsible action. This will be reflected within our school community, in our dealings with the school's local community, and in the children's understanding of their place in the national and global communities.

Values

At St. Michael's CE (Cont) Infant School, we know that properly meeting the duties described above will mean that all our work must embody some key principles:

- We strive to make the best possible provision for all learners, regardless of disability, ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or status, gender or sexuality.
- We respect diversity. We know that treating people equally is not simply a matter of treating everyone the same and that we need to take the necessary steps to ensure that every young person is given an equality of opportunity to develop socially, to learn and to enjoy community life. This means that we do our best to make reasonable adjustments for disability, recognise and celebrate cultural differences, understand the different needs and experiences of boys and girls.
- We know that equalities is not simply about protecting the potentially vulnerable. We believe that all children are damaged by the holding of prejudicial views, and seek to promote good relationships between all groups, and positive attitudes towards disabled people, people from different ethnic or cultural groups or faith backgrounds and people of different gender or sexuality.
- We value staff for their ability and potential to help us make the best possible provision for the children in our school, regardless of disability, ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin, gender or sexuality.
- We are proactive in our efforts to identify and minimise existing barriers or inequalities.
- We seek the views of all groups affected by the policies and work of our school, and try to involve them in policy review.
- We recognise our role in promoting community cohesion, and actively encourage the participation in public life of all learners in our school.
- Everything we do encompasses our school Christian School Values of love, perseverance, friendship, truthfulness, forgiveness and creativity.

All aspects of the curriculum are reviewed regularly, to ensure that:
